WEEK of WAITING ON GOD

PRAYER PROMPTS

What an incredible week of Waiting on God! We've been so encouraged to see our Bayside family praying together in small groups, lifting up the name of Jesus at our Night of Worship & Prayer and engaging with us through social media! As we begin Day 5, let's pause to listen to God. Yes, listening to God isn't usually the first thing that comes to mind when we talk about prayer, but prayer is communion with God, and that requires that we listen to what's on God's heart in addition to expressing what's on our own.

Wait on God. Listen. Then respond to His prompting. Finally, we'd love to hear what God has been telling you in response to our Week of Waiting....

Much like Paul prayed for the church of Colossae in Colossians 1:9-12, our prayer for you this Day 5 of our Week on Waiting is that you "may be filled with the knowledge of His will, in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to Him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. Being strengthened with all power, according to His glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light."

We're praying for you Bayside Adventure! If there is something we can specifically pray for you about, leave a comment or email us at prayer@baysideonline.com

As we conclude Day 5 and our Week of Waiting on God, let's remember that "the prayer of a righteous person is powerful and effective" (James 5:16). In every situation, our first response should always be to talk to God about it. But that's not likely going to happen, unless we intentionally develop a lifestyle of prayer. Remember, prayer is a spiritual discipline and that means, like any good habit, it takes work and effort to develop. So, don't just make the Week of Waiting on God the only week you intentionally pray, but take the time and make the effort to pray continually. To talk to God in every situation, and see what God does.

Thanks for joining us in prayer this week! We look forward to seeing you at Bayside Adventure this weekend.
